1. G.O. (Ms.) No. 212, Personnel & Administrative Reforms (P) Department dated 29.11.2001
2. G.O. (Ms.) No. 14, Personnel & Administrative Reforms (P) Department dated 7.2.2006
3. G.O. (Ms.) No. 98 Personnel & Administrative Reforms (S) Department dated 17.7.2006

ORDER

In the G.O. Third read above, orders were issued relaxing the upper age limit for entering into Government service by five years to enable the unemployed youth affected by the ban order on recruitment to apply for Government jobs.

2. In the meantime, several representations have been received from the employed youth and also from the Tamil Nadu Secretariat Association wherein they have requested that the age relaxation of 5 years may be made applicable to the employed persons also so to enable them to write the competitive exams, since those who are already employed were also affected by the ban on recruitment and they were not able to write the competitive exams and when the ban was lifted they became overaged.

3. After careful consideration, the Government direct that the upper age limit for entering into Government service shall be relaxed by five years to those who are already in Government service also, so as to enable them, to write the competitive examinations conducted by the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission.

4. Necessary amendment to General Rules for Tamil Nadu State and Subordinate Services will be issued separately.
