4(b) I) The Particulars of its organization, functions and duties:-

Organization:

The services of the Department of Employment and Training originally came in to existence to rehabilitate servicemen thrown out of employment due to post war demobilization. As per arrangement agreed upon both by the Central and State Governments, the Directorate General of Resettlement and Employment (DGRE) was set up in July 1945 and Employment Exchanges were gradually opened in several parts of the country. By early 1948, the services of Employment Exchanges were thrown open to all categories of the applicants. Day-to-day administration of the organization was handed over to the State government with effect from 1st November, 1956. The employment service is now the joint concern of the Central and State Governments

In 1960, the name of the Directorate General was changed from Directorate General of Resettlement and Employment to Directorate General of Employment and Training (D.G.E.T). The D.G,.E.T constitutes the national Headquarters of the Employment service as well as Craftsmen Training Scheme of the Ministry of Labour, Government of India. The Director General is at the apex of both the organizations at the National level.

The Commissioner of Employment and Training is the head of the Department, who is assisted by 3 Joint Directors. They are in charge of Employment, Employment Programme and Career Study. There are four Regional Deputy Directors situated at Chennai, Trichy, Coimbatore and Madurai, headed by Regional Deputy Directors who are supervising the activities of the Employment Exchanges / Special Offices under their control in 7-8 districts.
