Directorate of Tamil Etymological Dictionary Project

Particulars of organization, functions and duties under section 4(1)(b)(i) of Right to Information Act, 2005

1. Objective / purpose of the Department

The antiquity, greatness and richness of a language is measured by the volume of Dictionaries brought out in that language. The popular Tamil term Agarathi is known as Agaramudali in Chaste Tamil. In order to rise up to the level of the fast growing Science and technology and to preserve the literary and grammatical traditions of the Chaste Tamil, preparation of an unique Dictionary covering these aspects has become absolutely indispensable for the development of the language. As such, this department is implementing the scheme of preparing and publishing the Comprehensive Etymological Dictionary of the Tamil language in 12 Volumes consisting of 31 Parts.

i) Brief History:

The Government of Tamil Nadu have created this Directorate of Tamil Etymological Dictionary Project in May 1974, with the late lamented 'MozhiGnayiru' Devaneya Paavaanar as its head. This Etymological Dictionary Project fulfills the objective of bringing out a comprehensive Etymological Dictionary of the Tamil language.

State Subjects: -

Preparation and Publication of Tamil Etymological Dictionary

Concurrent Subjects

Same as above

Union Subjects:

Nil

ii) Organization Chart:

The organizational chart of this Department is given in the annexure:-

This Directorate of Tamil Etymological Dictionary Project functions under the administrative control of the Department of Tamil Development, Religious Endowment & Information, Secretariat, Chennai - 9.

iii) Administrative Units:

This Directorate of Tamil Etymological Dictionary Project has neither sub offices nor any agencies under control.

2. The functions of the Directorate in brief are given below: -

The great Tamil Scholar and multilinguist Devaneyya Paavaanar has not only made this Etymological Dictionary showing the root and origin of the words but also evolved certain principles for the Comparative study of Cognates on the basis of historical order of words. The tri functions involved in the process of preparation of this Etymological Dictionary are Compilation of material from multifarious Lexicons and usages, Elaboration as per the principles laid down by Paavaanar, and publication of the same in the form of book. This work is carried out in the project wing of this department consisting of Editors, Asst. Editors, Compilers, Artist and Computer Operators, under the guidance and supervision of the Honorary Director.

3. Working hours of the Department:

The department functions five days a week with Saturday and Sunday as weekly Holidays. The office hours are from 10.00 A.M to 5.45 P.M. with half an hour Lunch break between 1.00 P.M. and 2.00 P.M.

4. Schemes:

Preparation and publication of Tamil Etymological Dictionary in 12 volumes consisting of 31 parts is the main scheme of this department.

SALIENT FEATURES OF THE DICTIONARY:

Among the languages of India, it is only in Tamil, an exhaustive bilingual Etymological Dictionary consisting of 31 parts, is being published. An extensive research is being done under this project to determine the various aspects of the language such as the root and origin of the words, the derivation, transformation, influence and usage in Dravidian and other languages etc.

Apart from a general purpose dictionary, it is immensely useful, as a reference book, especially, to the researchers in linguistics.

In addition to highlighting the richness of the Tamil language, both Tamil and foreign words are exhibited separately in this Dictionary to cater to the need of chaste Tamil speaking class.

Adding new words, hitherto not found in any dictionary, giving explanations, quotations, examples and proverbs in support of the entries from various sources such as Archeology, Numismatics, Epigraphy, Literature and Grammar apart from figurative illustrations wherever necessary are some of the salient features which embellish this Dictionary.

Under this project, out of the proposed 31 parts this department has so far published 28 parts, the particulars of which are furnished below.
